

January Newsletter

Hello to all our Countryside Child Care families. Just a reminder we do go outside daily, weather permitting. Just a reminder please bring in some winter clothes for your child's bin. Please be sure to check your child's folder daily as there may be projects and paperwork to be filled out.

Specials Days, Closings and Reminders

- 🌟 Tuesday, January 1st, we will be CLOSED Happy New Years 🎉
- 🌟 Tuesday, January 15th, please wear your Pajamas for PJ Day!
- 🌟 Wednesday January 16th, please wear football attire.
- 🌟 Thursday January 17th, please wear the color White to represent the color of the month
- 🌟 Reminder- Please check weekly if your child/children are running out of anything such as diapers, wipes, extra clothes or diaper cream.

The Infant Room teachers are enjoying having fun with all the mobile babies around the classroom as they are exploring the classroom. We do still go outside if the weather allows us to so please send your children in with a weather appropriate coats as well as shoes.

The Toddler Room teachers are having fun planning projects for their kids as they will be working on the themes sharing, winter clothes, penguins, winter animals, and pirates! They will be doing group activities, gluing, painting and engineering. They will be working on the color white, shape of a square, the number 5, and the letters are MNO. The nursery rhyme for the month is Hickory, Dickory Dock!

The Preschool Room teachers had lots of fun planning for the children for the month of January. The themes are New year's, winter fun, snowmen, winter animals and the place is NYC. They will be doing group activities, sensory, engineering, creative writing, literacy as well as patterns. The portfolio work consists of letters MNO, the number 5, the color white, and the shape is a square. The skill for the month is same size.

***Happy Birthday to Taylor on the 22nd and Cecilia on the 25th
