January School-Age Classroom News

Look what we're studying:

Brrr! Winter is surely here! HAPPY NEW YEAR! 2020 is going to be one for the books! This month will be learning about winter animals, what we can do for fun in the winter, as well as our annual "trip" to China! Week one starts us off with all winter animals. We will be crafting our own animal dens, snow owls, polar bears and even a handprint penguin! Week two and three will be all about winter fun. From "snowball" painting to snow globes, mittens, snowflakes, and making snowmen out of our names! I wonder who will have the tallest snowman that week! The last week of January will be our trip to China! We will be making hand fans, pandas, koi fish and coming up with our own brochures of China!
