

December Newsletter

Hello Countryside Child care Families. Happy December! We will continue our eye opportunity of learning, exploring and engaging with others as a group. We will continue meeting new friends and sharing. Being hands on with fun activities whether its sensory, engineering, math, or creative writing. Taking interest in activities with paint, gluing, cutting and coloring. Below is a few reminders and special dates to take into consideration to refresh on what we do month to month and expectations Countryside entails. Thursday December 9th will be PIZZA Day!

- 🎄 Tuesday, December 21st will be Polar Express please have your child were Pjs as we will enjoy some choc milk, special treats and a movie!
- 🎄 Wednesday, December 22nd please wear some Festive socks!
- 🎄 Thursdays, December 23rd please wear the color Red
- 🎄 Friday, December 24th we are CLOSED!

If your child will be at Countryside later than 9:00AM please give us a call and let us know.

Reminder that the most important time of the day is in the morning this is where they do circle time and engage with one another as well as learn. This is also the time the Project and Portfolio work get done so Please have them in early so they get to do these learning activities with their peers.

The themes for this month are Holidays around the world, Hibernation, England and Forest Animals. The portfolio work for the month is: number 4, letters JKL. the color red, the skill is big/ small and the shape is a star. The nursery Rhyme is I'm a little teapot!
